A feature of the jubilee to be given by the Knights of Pythias, Thursday evening, December 3, at Pythian Temple, will be the convention of Franklin Lodge, No. 2, in session while the rank of page is presented

This lodge, organized April 12, 1864, is the oldest Pythian lodge in the world. The Pythian order was founded in this city February 19, 1864, by the institution of Washington Lodge, No. 1, which surrendered its charter after a short career. Franklin Lodge, No. 2, has continued since its organization, and is consequently the oldest Pythian lodge in existence. From the work of this lodge the order of the Knights of Pythias was firmly es-
